NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK,.............President.
ABRAM D POLHEMUS............Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE................Secretary.
O P. FACKLER...........Consulting Actuary
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D... Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United states are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. O. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary,
H. W. StJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt insured, nearly	$15,000,000
Policies Average	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurance than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67 which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income, until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "southern life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1869.

"GUILT CAN'T KEEP ITS OWN SECRET."

Every day throws light upon the Penitentiary Fraud.

DOWNING WOUNDED IN HIS IMMORTAL PART.

The enormity of the Penitentiary swindle can't remain a secret. Fraud, like "murder, will out."

The corners, caverns and hiding places of God's whole creation affords no secure hiding place for this Penitentiary fraud— It is an arrangment of Providence that great villainy is often accompanied with stupidity and confusion of mind. The workings of the mind often betray the corruptions of the heart, its purposes and designs.

We can't believe the whole Committee have been bribed, any more than we can believe that a majority of the Legislature can be bribed, as was stated by Governor Holden's friend, Judge Alden. We think that carpet-bag wretch a caluminator, and a dishonest man. Yes, we repeat, a dishonest man. We hope it may turn out, that the majority of the Committee have not been corrupted with bribes, but imposed upon by corrupt members of the Committee. The honest members of the Committee have done themselves great injustice by trying to defend such barefaced and shameless fraud. The weight of evidence points to the guilt of the Superintendent of Public Works, C. L. Harris.—No other member of the Committee was ever on the eight thousand acre purchase; yet, they sign a report giving a false account of its fertility and mineral wealth. Harris, as Chairman, professes to have made the report, when it is apparent he furnished the falsehoods for it, and some body else drew up the paper; no member of the Committee who signed the report is capable of drawing it except, perhaps, Jim Harris.

The purchase of land, not worth 10 cts. an acre, as reported by the Investigating Committee, and its immediate sale to the State at one hundred thousand dollars, is an evidence of fraud. The fifteen false statements contained in the report of the Purchasing Committee, are evidences of fraud. The assertion and the oath that the land contained a granite quarry, when it does not, is evidence of fraud. The hasty trip of Downing to Richmond, is evidence of great disquietude of mind on the fraud. His proposition to buy the property at one hundred thousand dollars, looks like fraud.

The possessor of ill gotten gain is often in trouble as to how he shall hold and use it. Some of those who made thousands by the fraud are willing to give up, if the investigation can only cease. That willingness to disgorge their ill gotten gain, is evidence of fraud, bribery and corruption.—The denunciation of Dr. Love, a member of the Investigating Committee, by General Littlefield's paper is evidence of fraud. Downing's declaration, that the report of the Investigating Committee was false, without pointing out a single particular, in which it was false, looks ugly.

Whosoever shall attempt to defend such a fraud and such a crime, will find himself wounded like Downing and Cassie—"wounded in their immortal" parts. Such a fraud and crime can't be kept a secret. The guilty, every day, by their efforts to conceal or defend the fraud, will but make proof of their own guilt.

The flight of the Editor of the Standard, his stay and delay in Richmond, while his dirty paper declares the "character of the General Assembly, as a body, is vindicated," is evidence of fraud. The declaration of the Standard, that "no spot tarnishes the honor of the General Assembly," while the Editor, Littlefield, is said to have received $100,000 in bonds to corrupt members, is not only evidence of fraud, but impudence and audacity, unsurpassed.

We have not heard the report, but a witness before the "Smelling Committee," is said to have testified that he employed Milton Littlefield, as his attorney, to get a Railroad bill through the Legislature; and that he sold him a certain amount of bonds at a certain price. This looks like fraud. Milton Littlefield is one of the owners of the Standard and dare not come to see his own dear friend, the Governor, until the Smelling Committee is discharged. That Committee is discharged, and now the Standard, may sing not "Oh, come back Stephen," but come back Milton! Oh, come back Milton!

This Penitentiary fraud is being discussed in the Legislatue, at night, but night can't conceal what such iniquity must reveal.

Tuesday night, in agony and pain, Downing was heard to cry out, on the floor of the House: "Mr. Speaker, I look upon the action of the House, to-night, as a reflection and censure upon my character and reputation. I don't care what becomes of the bill." After which, Gen. Laflin moved the House adjourn.

When Iago asked Cassio, "lieutenant are you hurt;" Cassio, writhing like Downing, said: "Yes, past all surgery! Reputation! Reputation! Oh, I have lost my reputation,—I have lost the immortal part of self; and what remains is beastial. My reputation, Iago, my reputation."

Downing's hurt; yes, an honest man, trying to "turn an honest penny," and defend the Penitentiary purchase, received a wound which is past all surgery; yes, a wound in his tender part!

Oh, Littlefield, soon return! For Downing's hours are lonely when unsoothed by thee!"

Legislature of North Carolina.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill to amend the charter of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad.

Mr. Laflin moved to recommit to the Committee.

Mr. Malone took the floor and spoke for some time against the motion. He saw no good reason why the House should not pass the bill to-day. After a long debate, the bill was recommitted to the Committee on Internal Improvement, with instructions to report this evening, and the bill was also made special order for 8 o'clock, this evening.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and the bill to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the Plaster Bank and Salt Works, R. R. Co, ratified 13th of May, 1866, was taken up.

An amendment making an appropriation of money was offered and adopted, when,

Mr. Pou raised the point of order that the bill was unconstitutional in its present status, as section 16 article 2, of the Constitution expressly declared that all bills appropriating money should be three times read on separate days. This bill passed its second reading without asking for an appropriation. If the bill passed providing for an appropriation, it must do it in the manner prescribed in the Constitution.

On motion of Mr. French, the rules were suspended, and the bill to incorporate the Union Land Co., was taken up and after being somewhat amended, passed its several readings.

After the transaction of some unimportant business, the House then adjourned until this evening at 7½ o'clock.

RADICAL HATE.—We learn upon good authority that a highly accomplished and well educated young lady, who went with her family from North Carolina to Missouri, recently applied for a situation as a teacher in one of the Public Schools, and that the Board of Managers actually refused to even examine her, because she was from the South! Such a manifestation of Radical hate shows the pusylanimity of wretches beneath the dignity of contempt. And yet some of our citizens are willing to remove and take up their abode among these Arabs in Missouri, and other Northwestern States. There are degrees among Radicals, and, perhaps, the meanest and lowest of the God forsaken race reside in the Northwest. Better remain and "fight it out" in North Carolina. To those of our friends who have unwittingly removed to that "inhospitable region," we would say: "Fight your enemies with their own weapons," and be not too particular what other kind you use.—Statesville American.

THE CHINESE IN CALIFORNIA.—A case has arisen in California, under the Civil Rights Act and the 14th. amendment to the Constitution, involving the rights of Chinese residents. A soldier was arrested for stabbing a Chinese, and the latter was offered as a witness at the trial. After argument, the judge, under the California statute, rejected him as a witness, holding that the Civil Rights Act does not apply to foreign-born residents, and that the amendment refers only to the rights of citizens. Fortunately, there were white witnesses of the assault, who were examined, so that there was no failure of justice. However, serious difficulties will arise when China complains to the United States that the Asiatics in California are not protected by an appeal to the law, when the injured party is the principal or only witness.

Official notification has been received of the ratification by the Mexican Congress of the treaty between that Government and the United States. This treaty gives to the President the appointment of a commissioner to settle the so called Mexican claims, and an agent or attorney of this Government. The former officer is to be confirmed by the Senate, and the President will probably nominate a commisioner in a few days.

THE CHINESE EMBASSY IN PARIS—SPANISH OPPOSITION TO THE SALE OF CUBA.

PARIS, Jan. 24.—The Chinese Embassy to-day had an interview with the Emperor at the Tuilleries. They received the courtesies usually extended to diplomatic representatives of high rank, but without military honors. The Emperor was attended by the Prince Imperial and the Marquis De Lavalette.

Mr. Burlingame, addressing the Emperor, hoped France would receive China as a sister. France had hitherto enjoyed all the privileges accorded by China to European powers. China now took upon herself the duties of civilization and international courtesy.

The Emperor, in reply, expressed his satisfaction at seeing China take such a great step, and said he would be pleased to co-operate with her representatives. He referred to commercial advantages likely to arise from closer relations, and concluded with general congratulations.

When the Marquis De Lavalette personally introduced Mr. Burlingame, the Emperor expressed his astonishment at finding him an American, acting as Ambassador from China; to which Mr. Burlingame replied in a happy manner, and a long conversation ensued between the Emperor and the Ambassador. Messrs. Brown and Deschamps, Secretaries of the legation, were then presented to the Emperor, after which Mr. Brown formally laid in the hands of the Minister of War the credentials of the Ambassadors from the Emperor of China. When this ceremony had been performed the interview terminated. The Ambassadors were subsequently received by the Empress Eugenie, when Mr. Burlingame took occassion to convey the felicitations of the Emperor of China to her Majesty and the Imperial family.

The Gaulois says the Greek Government has rejected the declaration of the Paris Conference.

MADRID, Jan. 24.—It is announced, on official authority, that the Provisional Government, believing that it truthfully interprets the feelings of the nation, cannot accept any proposition for the cession of the Island of Cuba.

From the Tipton (Tenn.) Recorder.

A FRIGHTFUL CATALOGUE OF CRIME IN TENNESSEE.

In the year 1852, Dr. Walton, a citizen of Tipton county, living about four and a half miles from the county town, was killed by a man named Yarboro. Shortly afterward Capt. Smith, who was one of the sheriff's posse, killed Yarboro in attempting to arrest him. In 1865 Smith was killed at Randolph by Dr. Martin, who had not long before returned from the Confederate army, having lost an arm at Atlanta, we believe. In the fall of 1866 Dr. Martin was killed by a Captain Irwin, and last summer Irwin was killed by a man named Burnett, who acted in self-defence, and was acquitted before a magistrate, and no attempt was ever made to bring the matter before the grand jury. Irwin's father and brother, who resided in Middle Tennessee, near Pulaski, we understand, swore vengeance against Burnett, and although it was known to all that he acted purely in self-defence, determined upon his death. Burnett, too, seemed to have a superstitious dread of being killed, as he was familiar with strange fatality which seemed to direct the several homicides, and soon after the killing of Irwin left the State, telling every one that he was going to his wife, who was at Marietta, Georgia, but instead went first to Mississippi, where he was followed by the father and brother of Capt. Irwin. He left Mississippi and went to or near Osceola, Ark., to live; but here, too, the avengers of Irwin came, and a few days ago the father and brother killed Burnett.

Plantation negroes are the best informed, the ablest and the most impartial jurors the civilized world has yet possessed. Thomas E. Hillson, one of these same plantation jurors, has sent Judge Cooley, of the Sixth District Court, the following excuse. But, before seeing it, we wish the reader to know that this illustrious black gentleman was drawn on a special jury in an important and very intricate commercial case. Videlicet:

I have got othing eat and i can not stay Here for nothing my house Rent is going on I cannot get any credit any where money i could Promes pay to them i by of but at this Reates i can not promies no money i am happy To do my beast for you and the Law also but I moust live too and you know it I love to do As i am bid to do i moust have something to eat

Sin my name Thomas E Hillson

Judge Cooley is a man of sense, wit and discrimination. After reading Hillson's appeal, he simply indorsed it "excused. W. H. C." Reader, are you sure you would have been excused! No, it was merely for the negroe's gross ignorance that he was excused. And of such is the kingdom of the United States.—N. O. Crescent.

A VALUABLE INVENTION.—On Saturday afternoon we witnessed the operations of an ingenious serviceable labor saving Machine, invented by Mr. J. L. Stegall, of this city, which distributes by an easy process, seed and fertilizers at the same time, and we have no doubt it will soon be regarded an indispensable appliance or instrument of Husbandry by Farmers generally.

The various Cereals with the quantity of fertilizing agents are distributed with a neatness and accuracy very pleasing to the eye of a skilled Agriculturalist, and we hope the Inventor will reap a handsome harvest through his skill and enterprise.—Charlotte Bulletin.

A CALIFORNIA MILLIONAIRE.—A letter from San Francisco, speaking of the richness of the White Pine mining district in Nevada, says there is now in that city a middle aged man who a year since was at work by the month as a mechanic, and not worth a dollar. To day he is worth at least $1,000,000 in hard coin, and his income from one mine alone in White Pine is over $1,500 per day. He is investing his money in real estate in San Francisco. The other day a friend was joking him on the subject of marriage, remarking that he could now marry any young lady in San Francisco, to which he replied, "Well, I knew a gal out West who was willing to marry me when I hadn't a cent, and now I'm able, I'm going to marry her."—Boston Post.

A New Yorker wants to know what is the real language of that city. He says he recently heard nine different languages spoken at one time on a Hoboken ferryboat.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT APPLICATION will be made to the present General Assembly to amend the Charter of the NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE. Jan. 18-w4w

MARRIED:

On the 21st of January 1869, in St. Luke's Church, at Lincolnton, N. C., by the Rev. Wm. R. Wetmore, Rector, Mr. FRANK H. DEWEY, of Charlotte, N. C., to Miss MARIA JUSTICE, of the former place.

DIED:

Of paralysis, on the 6th instant, in the 67th year of her age, after a painful illness of two months Mrs. MARY R., wife of Mr. John C. Taylor, of Granville County, N. C.

Eminently possessed of the amiable virtues of her sex, beautifully pious, prudent and considerate in her domestic relations, and distinguished for social merit, her decease is felt as a personal loss by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

We prayerfully trust that the heart of a fond husband, crushed and disconsolate by his loss, may be soothed by that healing balm which Heaven alone can give.

Earth's sweetest cup may bitter grow,
The darkest lowering clouds attend;
A flood of grief the soul o'erflow,
And cruel death take dearest friend;
But the sequel of each one will tell,
"Our Father doeth all things well."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla; through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Scheidam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK,
Nov. 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Scheidam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK 53 CEDAR STREET,
November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification: that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,

We remain your obedient servants,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Selling out at cost—D. C. Murray. Carson will do what he says.

Fresh Snuff—Upchurch & Dodd.

Auction to-night—W. H Jones & Co.

BY CONSENT of the authorities, the commandant of the troops at the Old Pettigrew Hospital, has agreed to put the Street, leading from that encampment through the city, to the N. C. Railroad Depot, in perfect order, and we are pleased to note the fact that operations have been commenced.

Of course, we would not be understood as finding fault, in suggesting that there are other localities about the great thoroughfares of the town, sadly out of repair. We would be pleased if the city authorities would go "one eye" on Davie Street and pavements, leading east from the Cape Fear Bank.

Handy Williams, colored, has been found guilty, before Judge Watts, of placing a ladder at the window, and entering the room of a couple of young ladies in this county; who, hearing Williams, made good their escape, and gave the alarm. Williams was arrested in his attempt to escape down the ladder. He will, we doubt not, learn a better trade, in the State prison.

We must ask again, that our friends, when writing for the Sentinel, will write only on one side of the paper.

BEAUTIFUL AND TRUE—We are indebted to our young friend, Mr. Rufus Morgan, Photographer, Newbern, N. C., for half dozen photographs of prominent buildings in our city, to-wit: St. Mary's, National Bank, State House, Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Christ's Church, and the Washington Monument, Capitol Square.

The Daily Observer, Charlotte, by Smith, Watson & Co., the first number of which we have received, is neat and well gotten up, both in typographical appearance and matter. We wish the enterprising firm a full measure of success.

Reporters, localizers and sometimes Editors, are recipients of courtesies, not always shown to the "rest of mankind," and for which the aforesaid officials feel profoundly grateful. An occasion of this character was afforded one of us a few mornings since, by being very unexpectedly introduced into the dining room of the Yarboro' House, by mine host, Major Blair. The Major, by nature, is a "hotel keeper;" for this we offer, not our testimony alone, but the testimony of the great numbers of regular, as well as transient customers, that daily feast at his well supplied tables and enjoy the comforts of his well disciplined and well arranged accommodations.

THE "New Movement" is the all absorbing topic in Virginia. The papers of that ancient Commonwealth teem with reports of this movement. Meetings are being held pro and con, and some amusing things occur now and then, in the "trooly loil" gatherings. In Western Virginia at a recent "loil" meeting a young negro orator seemed to be generous. He said, "My brethering and feller-citizens: De objec of dis meetin are very seasonous. It revoives upon us to get good men and true men, willin to sustain ekil and just rights to every man. Now you know dere is experunced men acknowledgin' and fessin' deir faultses fore de congregation. Dey is strowed about like lost sheep, dey has been agoin' everywhere, and now dey comes fessin' an' we ought to forgive 'em." Another orator said his "heart was all clouded with love for everybody."

That remark, "dere is experunced men acknowledgin' and fessin' deir faultses fore de congregation," applies very directly to many hereabouts, who "is strowed about like lost sheep."

The following letter from Mr. Wm. F. Atkinson, of Wayne county, agent for the Immigration Society, to Dr. Satchwell, appeared in the Wilmington Journal of the 20th inst.:

HORGEN, SWITZERLAND, Jan. 2d, 1869.

DR. S. S. SATCHWELL—

Dear Sir:—After my respects, this is to inform you that we arrived at this place on the 31st ult., after a long, rough and very disagreeable voyage. We have commenced operations here and have at this time several families already engaged to send over to America. Since I left home, I have learned that there is a Steamship Company running a line of Steamers from New York to Wilmington, N. C. I also learn that they propose to carry emigrants cheaper than the Newbern line. You will confer a favor by seeing their Agent in Wilmington and ascertain their price for carrying emigrants from New York to Wilmington, N. C., and let me know immediately, as I wish and I feel it my duty to get the emigrants over here as cheap as possible. I hope we will be able to start home about the first of February.

Thinking that the farmers would not object to receiving a few Grape Vines, I have to-day engaged ten thousand (10,000) which I expect to send over with the first lot of emigrants, and I wish the vines distributed amongst the members of our Society.

Please write soon and oblige,

Yours, &c.,

WM. F. ATKINSON.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

We have not attended the Courts since the Judges became politicians and engaged in political campaigns—but we hear from one who was present, that the charge made by His Honor, S. W. Watts on Monday, was well conceived, and breathed the true spirit of an honest upholder of the laws. His advice to the citizens, to the Grand and petit Juries, and to the bar, as to the dispatch of business, and the consequent relief to the taxpayers of the expenses attending the long continuance of the Courts and the maintainance of pauper persons in the jail, as reported to us, has our hearty concurrence. If His Honor shall carry out what he proposes, and does not in future degrade his high position by mixing in the arena of politics, we shall let him alone. We shall say "let there be peace" between the Sentinel and this Judge.

THE great struggle for the spoils, during the last three years of profound peace, quiet and fraternal love, in these United States, by the various tribes that have identified themselves with the carpet baggers, the adventurers, as well as the miserable scalawags, has resulted in the total overthrow of the credit of the States, the pulling down of the legitimate trade of the country, and in universal bankruptcy. These facts are patent and potent, and the eyes of the people are at last being opened, not until, however, the officers of the law, (!) knowing no mercy, have seized and exposed to public sale, their horses, their stock in common, and the last blade of fodder—leaving the poor man, not only homeless, but entirely destitute.

Conservative orators, representing both of the old political parties, time and again warned the people of the results of Radical rule; these warnings, had they been heeded, would have resulted in the election of a Conservative Legislature, a Conservative Governor, and, per consequence, instead of the distress and corruption under which we now groan, prosperity and financial confidence would have been the boon now enjoyed.

The voting power is in the hands of the conservative party of North Carolina—through apathy, inattention or a proper appreciation of the crisis, our friends have failed to use their power, and have suffered the election of a Radical Governor, who, upon his elevation, proposed to place the State under the tyrannical rule of a negro militia; they have allowed the election of a horde of carpet-baggers and ignoramuses, to the Legislature, who have succeeded in inflicting an enormous debt upon our people, and have nearly succeeded in placing the State at the mercy of the Wall Street brokers.

Their eagerness to secure the spoils, has revealed a system of corruption heretofore unknown to the staid old State of North Carolina, and the half is not yet developed. Our people have yet to learn, that their stocks are all to be sold under the hammer; that the public lands belonging to the State must go into market; the public lots owned by the State, in the city of Raleigh, must be sold at public vendue, and then, all the money resulting from these forced sales, will not pay one year's interest on the State debt.

What next? The resources of the State being exhausted—the people already taxed beyond their capacity to pay—why, the doctrine of repudiation will be freely discussed, and the next canvass will turn upon this one point.

We hang our head in very shame, while contemplating the future of our State. We would feign offer a panacea for the ills that environ us; but, so long as the wild ideas of a reckless mis-representation in our Legislative Halls are reduced to practice, there is no hope for our people.

The beating of drums and the burning of powder having become things numbered with the "bloody past," we are rejoiced to find our honest, hard working yeomanry, ready to once again revive, not only their County Agricultural Societies and Fairs, but the North Carolina State Agricultural Society and Fair, to again mingle together, and exhibit together, under a common brotherhood, the products of their farms, and compete for the prizes usually offered. Such a gathering, in contrast with the political gatherings of the last two or three years, would indeed be a green spot in our latter life, and tend greatly not only to harmonize society, but to re-establish the lost confidence between neighbors and old friends. We shall take pleasure in doing all that we can, with our pen, and the use of our columns, in bringing about this much desired state of things, and we invite communications on this subject, from those, who, heretofore, have been zealous in the good work.

A NUT FOR THE STANDARD TO CRACK.—We find in the Le Nouveau Monde the following article, which we commend to the translators (!) who hang around the Standard office. We would give the translation ourselves, but prefer some one of the learned corps—for instance, Mr. Taylord—should give it that free translation which we know he is capable of doing.

L'EMIGRATION AU SUD.—Un de nos abonnes nous ecrit de Chapel Hill (Caroline du Nord):

"Dans le dernier numero du Nouveau Monde, sous le titre: Emigration malheureuse, vous announcez, d'apres le Standard, de Raleigh, que des emigrants allemands ou suisses se trouvent dans une position deplorable. Le Standard, de Raleigh, est un journal republicain, ecrit par des carpet baggers, tous devoues aux noirs, et qui font tous les efforts possibles pour decourager les associations nombreuses qui se forment en vue de l'immigration.

Je puis vous assurer que les emigrants europeens sont recus a bras ouverts dans tout le Sud, et qu'il n'y a pas un homme qui ne soit pret a les secourir et a leur donner immediatement du travail.

Quant aux emigrants suisses qui sont etablis maintenant a Goldsboro—Le bourg d'or,—ils s'y trovent tres bien, et des qu'ils le pourront, ils enverront de l'argent a d'autres de leurs compatriotes pour venir ici.

KINSTON, Jan. 25, 1869.

I am now able to give you some further particulars in regard to the graveyard robbers, in which the remains of John Williams were disentombed and carried off, on last Wednesday night, together with some of the subsequent events in connection therewith. It seems that the Sheriff and his party (who it has already been stated, went out in search of the fugitives on Thursday evening) came in contact with them, at a late hour, and was fired upon, which resulted in the wounding of one of the Sheriff's men, a Mr. Ellmore, slightly in the mouth. The fire was returned with a will, instantly killing one of the negroes, whose body was completely riddled with balls. This negro, it seems, was on a shuck pen, hay, or something of that kind, which, by some means was set on fire, completely consuming the dead body. As the pile burned down, it was discovered by the frequent discharge of fire arms, that there were a number of guns, pistols, &c., concealed in the shucks. Several negroes, and one white man were arrested and brought in. They had an examination before a Justice's Court on Friday, and were committed to jail.

And now for the sequel—At a late hour on Saturday night, Mr Freeman, the jailer, was called out by an armed party of mounted men, numbering 12 or 15, and requested to get his keys and go with them to the jail, alleging that they had a prisoner, whom they desired him to take to jail.—However, upon arriving at the jail, Mr. Freeman was informed of the truth and requested to surrender the keys at the hazard of his life. They then proceeded to disgorge the jail of six persons, one white man and five negroes, who were known to have been connected with the grave robbery, as well as several other high handed crimes in the same neighborhood, whom they carried off towards the county bridge, one mile below town. A large quantity of blood and brains was discovered upon the bridge yesterday, evidently showing that these desperadoes met with a terrible fate.

The lynchers were unknown. There still seems to be no positive conclusion as to the design of the thieves in taking up Mr. Williams. His remains have not yet been found.

"LENOIR."

A BOLD AND BLOODY ROBBERY.—A bold robbery, accompanied with probable murder, occurred near Lumberton last Saturday evening, about half past 7 o'clock. Mr Reuben King, ex Sheriff of Robeson County, was, directly after supper, sitting around his fire, engaged reading a newspaper. Mr. S. E. Ward was his only companion, his wife and lady visitor being in the kitchen attending to culinary affairs. Mr. King heard some one at the door, and, upon opening it, saw a man who held in his hands a gun, which he immediately pointed at Mr. King. A scuffle ensued, and the contents of the gun were discharged in the floor. Another villian stepped up, and shot Mr. King in the back, the ball severing the spine, and lodging near the right shoulder. Still another scoundrel presented himself, and fired his gun at Mr. Ward, the load taking effect in his arm and stomach.

Mrs. King was now entering the house, when discovering two of the robbers leveling their guns at her, she turned and fled. Her course was followed by her lady visitor, and it is to their flight that they owe life. The house now underwent a thorough sacking. About $125 in currency, and $30 or $50 in specie, were carried away by the murderous robbers. Also, a watch that hanging over the mantel piece, was taken by one of the men, and, in reaching forth his arm to obtain it, his sleeve was thrown back, revealing a white arm. This, with other incidents, established the color of the white wretches, who had disguised themselves as negroes. Their number amounted to six or seven, nor has it as yet been diminished by capture.

Mr. King is an old and worthy man, and his recovery is more than doubtful. Mr. Ward's wound is very dangerous: forty small shot were extracted from it, leaving the sufferer in a critical condition. In truth, Hope can barely point to the recovery of either.—Wilmington Star.

PETITION.—We were shown yesterday a blank petition ready for signatures praying the General Assembly to abolish the Special Court of this city as at present constituted. It reads as follows:

To the Honorable, the General Assembly,

Of the State of North Carolina:

We, the undersigned, citizens of Wilmington and New Hanover county, do most earnestly and respectfully submit that the "Special Court of the city of Wilmington," established by an Act of the General Assembly, ratified 11th, day of August, 1868, is extremely burdensome and expensive, imposing heavy taxation and inconvenience upon the people; and that the trial of the violations of the City Ordinances by the Judge of the Special Court, under the Act amending the charter of the City of Wilmington, subjects the citizens to much inconvenience and increased expense, without any adequate equivalent.

We therefore respectfully request the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, to repeal the first above cited Act, and amend the other so as to confer upon the Mayor jurisdiction in all violations of the City Ordinances, and provide for holding Special Courts for the trial of misdemeanors in New Hanover county, at such times only as the exigencies of the community may demand.

We suppose this petition will be circulated for the purpose of receiving the signatures of such who may favor the object both in the City and county.—Wilmington Journal

Sunday morning about one o'clock, a fire broke out in the drug store of Burrow & White, on Church street, which was entirely consumed by the relentless flames. It was a new building recently erected by Chas. A. Smith, Esq., and insured for $3.500.

The entire stock of Burrow & White was destroyed, but fortunately, it was nearly covered by insurance, in the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company for $4,500, and in Deming's Agencies for $500. Their total loss does not exceed $600 or $700. The roof and upper portion of Wm. A. Mehegan's building, adjoining, occupied as a sugar store, was considerably burned, and his stock damaged by water.

Mr. Chas. A. Smith's dry goods establishment next to it, and J. J. Tompkin's cabinet shop on the opposite side of the street were also slightly burned at the top and on the roof, all of which, however, are covered by insurance. The gallant firemen deserve much praise for their promptness in reaching the scene of conflagration, and rendering such signal service in conquering the devouring element that seemed furiously bent upon destruction.—Norfolk Day Book.

Brick Pomeroy says the charges were made in the staff of his paper because the editors were all Republicans and he was bound to fill their places with Democrats.

ACCUMULATED ASSETS OVER

ANNUAL INCOME,

$7,500,000.00.

Policies in Force Over 60,000.

FOR EVERY $100 OF LIABILITIES, IT HAS $154 OF ASSETS.

THIS COMPANY has proven to be the CHEAPEST, BEST AND MOST RELIABLE in the country, because it has the largest income, largest number of Policy holders, largest surplus of Assets over Liabilities, its dividends to policy-holders have been larger than any other Company, and ratio of expenses less; therefore being the cheapest and best Company for the insured.

The great clamor against the assessment of premium notes or their deduction from the policy in case of death, does not apply to the Connecticut Mutual, for, judging the future by the past, the dividends will cancel the premium notes whether the party lives or dies.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make GRAND PROMISES of what they INTEND DOING but will insure persons on any plan desired, and all its policies are non-forfeiting for a stated amount after two or three years.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.
